

Aphrodisiac Menu

The word aphrodisiac is derived from the Greek goddess of sensuality, Aphrodite.

Oysters were documented as an aphrodisiac food by the Romans in the second century A.D. as mentioned in a satire by Juvenal. He described the wanton ways of women after ingesting wine and eating oysters. An additional hypothesis is that the oyster resembles the female's sex organs. In reality oysters are very nutritious and high in protein.

Raw Oysters on the Half Shell 4 pieces $6.95

Oysters Florentine 4 pieces $6.95

Oysters Florentine are served with spinach, mozzarella cheese, roasted garlic, and bread crumbs. Topped with hollandaise sauce

Oysters Casino 4 pieces

$6.95

Oysters Casino are served with red and green peppers with bread crumbs and Parmesan cheese. Topped with hollandaise sauce.

Oysters Rockefeller 4 pieces $6.95

Served with a pancetta and red pepper stuffing. Topped with hollandaise sauce.

Given its phallic shape asparagus is frequently enjoyed as an aphrodisiac food. The Vegetarian Society suggests "eating asparagus for three days for the most powerful effect" See you the next two days too ☺

Grilled Asparagus Bruchetta with marscapone cheese $9.99

The Aztecs called the avocado tree Ahuacuatl which translated means testicle tree.

Avocado Carpachio Bruchetta with balsamic glaze $9.99

Almonds have been a symbol of fertility throughout the ages. The aroma is thought to induce passion in the female. The scent of vanilla is believed to increase lust. Old Totonac lore has it that Xanat, the daughter of the Mexican fertility goddess, loved a Totonac youth. Unable to marry him due to her divine nature, she transformed herself into a plant that would provide pleasure and happiness.

Toasted Almond Salad with a champagne and vanilla infused vinaigrette

$7.00

An open fig is thought to emulate the female sex organ and thought of as a stimulant. A man breaking open a fig and eating it in front of his partner is a powerful erotic act.

Potency Plate: $7.99
Black mission figs and pineapple spears with a honey and basil dipping sauce accompanied by pickled ginger

Libido Blast $4.50
Chef Chad has created a dessert full of beta carotene, vitamin B, and potassium to boost libidos. He has crossed two old favorites, banana bread and carrot cake, to Give you a stimulating boost of vitality for body and soul.

The Aztecs referred to chocolate as “nourishment of the gods” Chocolate contains more antioxidant than does red wine. The secret for passion is to combine the two.

Chocolate Martini $6.00

Blood red and packed with seeds the pomegranate has been a symbol of fertility for centuries.

Pomegranate Martini $6.00

Not much is sexier than honey! Medieval seducers plied their partners with mead, a fermented drink made from honey. Lovers on their “honeymoon” would drink mead to sweeten the marriage.

Frisky Whiskey $5.00
Made with Irish whiskey, Barenjager Honey Liquer, OJ, Splash of sprite and dash of bitters

Hot Honey Crisp $5.00
Hot Cider, Barenjager Honey Liquer, and apple cognac.

A glass or two of wine can greatly enhance a romantic interlude. Wine relaxes and helps stimulate our senses. Drinking wine can be an erotic experience. Let your eyes feast on the color of the liquid. Caress the glass, savor the taste on your lips. Do remember that excessive alcohol will make you too drowsy for the after dinner romance.*